

JAMAICA SHOWCASE

TOUR DESCRIPTION

Soar to new heights on this deluxe tour. Take off from Ocho Rios and get a breath-taking view of Dunn's River Falls, before winging your way south over the little town of Linstead, immortalized by Harry Belafonte in the popular recording of "Linstead Market".

Further south, you'll see the spectacular Bog Walk Gorge before moving on to Jamaica's old capital, Spanish Town, with its magnificent square and oldest Cathedral in the New World. History buffs will be further interested in Port Royal, the former haunt of pirates and buccaneers like the notorious Captain Henry Morgan.

Next, swing north for an unforgettable view of Jamaica's capital, Kingston then cross the majestic Blue Mountain range to Port Maria, before returning along the coast to Ocho Rios.
