

MEMORIES OF JAMAICA

TOUR DESCRIPTION

Spread your wings with this tour, which includes all of the elements of the James Bond's Jamaica tour and incorporates an additional flight west down the varied coastline to Port Maria.

On this trip you will have the chance to see Noel Coward's hilltop house and final resting place, Firefly, with its breathtaking view of Galina point. Flying over Oracabessa, James Bond fans will be delighted to see the former residence of Ian Fleming, well-known creator of the "007" series.

On the way back to Ocho Rios, you will see more of nature's handiwork, which can be fully appreciated from the views offered by the helicopter.
